Large print reading sheet is available too.

Remember that at the 9.30am service, the Offertory hymn is being chosen by a member of the congregation. Enjoy sharing in each choice and the personal reasons for it.

Diary Dates

Sunday 5th at 2pm Dove Funeral Services Memorial Service. All welcome

100 Days of Prayer for Peace.

On August 4th 1918, King George V led the nation in prayer; 100 days later World War 1 ended on November 11th, Armistice Day. To mark the centenary of this National Day of Prayer, we are being encouraged to pray for peace for 99 days until Remembrance Sunday, November 11th 2018. There is a booklet in church & more information available on the internet at www.remembrance100.co.uk/100-days/

Prayers for the Area and for our Community.

- For St Lawrence's, Bramshall. Give thanks for all the weddings and baptisms this year, for the wonderful dedication of the new kitchen and toilet, and for everything that builds up the community. Please pray for the safety of farmers and growers at this busy time, for the newly re-launched Bramshall Inn, for all troubled by family problems and waiting important exam results.
- For the recently bereaved families and friends of Peter Owen, Bill Shaw, Audrey Holmes, Andrew Cruikshank and Jackie Lavin. And for those we know personally who are ill, lonely or scared.
